

IAPA Hails Listing Of Ban on Paper

The Provisional Government of the Dominican Republic lifted the suspension of La Hoja on Dec. 22, after other publications had voiced strong protests.

John T. O'Rourke, editor of the Washington (D. C.) News, chairman of the Committee on Freedom of the Press of the Inter American Press Association, sent a note to Provisional President Hector Garcia-Godoy expressing satisfaction with the government's action.

Mr. O'Rourke also urged the government to refrain from "actions tending to circumscribe a free press dedicated to the democratic process."
